UNION MATTERS

WHY JOIN NUJ?

The International Press Card (IPC) is recognised the world over and is the only press pass endorsed by national journalists' organisations in more than 130 countries. The IPC is ONLY available to members of IFJ-affiliated national journalists' organisations.

ABOUT US

WHO WE ARE

The National Union of Journalists Malaysia (NUJ) is the only organisation of working journalists in the country representing the industrial, social and welfare interest of journalists.

- By joining the NUJ, you join a democratic trade union and are expected to help strengthen the union and abide by its principles and practices.
- Strength through unity:-working together for common benefits and press freedom.
- Print, Online and Broadcast journalists and freelances together under Chapel:- The groups share a common interest in promoting high standards of journalism and in defending security of work and the levels of pay offered in the industry.

WHY JOIN NUJ?

ABOUT US

WHAT WE DO

NUJ Malaysia is the sole authority to negotiate and determine the proper rates of remuneration and other terms and conditions of employment for journalists in the various publishing houses which produce Bahasa Melayu, English and Chinese newspapers and periodicals

- Collective representation/Bargaining power working people, through their unions, negotiate contracts with their employers to determine their terms of employment, including pay, benefits, hours, leave, job health and safety policies, ways to balance work and family, and more.
- Democracy- The NUJ is a democratic organisation and its strength comes from the involvement and engagement of all its members.

UNION EDGE

WHY JOIN NUJ?

ABOUT US

WHAT TO EXPECT

To secure the complete organisation of all working and professional journalists, whose place of work is in the States of Peninsular Malaysia, and to promote the industrial, social and intellectual interests of its members.

To defend freedom of the Press, to deal with the professional conduct of its members and to maintain high ethical standards in journalism.

To obtain and maintain for members just and proper rates of remuneration, security of employment and reasonable hours and conditions of work and to provide advice and assistance accordingly.

To further, financially or otherwise, the work or purpose of any lawful association or body having for its objects the promotion of the interests of labour, trade unions and trade unionists, subject to the provisions of Section 50 of the Trade Unions Ordinance, 1959.

- Building the union's strength:- By growing with us, the union becomes stronger and more able to defend its members' interests.
- Strength through diversity: - The NUJ strives for diversity in the union's membership - to foster strength. Discrimination, on grounds of gender, ethnic origin, sexual orientation, age or disability means that some members are more likely to suffer poorer conditions of employment and lower pay than others, irrespective of their skills and abilities.
