

“INK RUN 2017”

A FUN RUN BY NATIONAL UNION OF JOURNALISTS PENINSULAR MALAYSIA

PROPOSAL FOR INK RUN 2017

Dear Sir/ Madam

RE: NUJ PRESS FREEDOM DAY MARATHON 2017, 55th ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION.

With kind reference to the above, the National Union of Journalists Malaysia (NUJ) being an affiliate member of the Confederation of ASEAN Journalists (CAJ) and the International Federation of Journalists (IFJ) will be concurrently organising a World Press Freedom Day Marathon Event to celebrate NUJ's 55th Anniversary for members of the journalists fraternity and associates in Kuala Lumpur on 30th September this year.

The objective of the events is for NUJ to safeguard and uphold journalists' welfare and safety in the country, providing at the same time necessary courses through workshops and forums on ethics and professional journalism, union organization, industrial relations and legal applications.

About 150 participants mainly journalists, NGOs, academicians, and the public will be actively involved in the marathon event. We will be inviting the Prime Minister to officiate our 55th Anniversary event together with the presence of other dignitaries and VIPs.

NUJ was established in 1962. It is a neutral and non-profitable organisation and the only body protecting the welfare of over 1,400 journalists in Malaysia. NUJ's main goal is not to be successful in terms of wealth, but in terms of giving value to journalists we administer to specifically journalists ethics and good conduct, safe working environment, rights of workers, press freedom issues, and training for leadership.

However, in order to achieve these, the NUJ must recourse to the goodwill and generosity of the public corporate bodies in contributions and funding in order to raise sufficient funds.

NUJ members are mainly from eight mainstream newspapers and magazines namely the NST, The Star, Utusan Malaysia, Nanyang Siang Pau, Sin Chew Media Corp, Kwong Wah Yit Poh, Sun Media Corporation and Utusan Karya Sdn Bhd.

In light of this, NUJ Malaysia humbly seeks the goodwill and generosity of various companies and organizations in helping us financially or in kind to manage the overwhelming cost of NUJ “INK RUN 2017”.

Subsequently, acknowledgement to this altruistic and generous contribution will appear in our souvenir programme and newspaper accolades for generously providing the dignitaries, guests and participants with a remarkable event. With high regards, we hereby humbly hope that your kind and generous assistance can help us to meet the large expenses involved.

Yours faithfully,

MOHD TAUFEEK RAZAK

President
